MORRIS JOINS FARM CREDIT TEAM IN MAHOMET

Jessica Morris was recently hired by Farm Credit Services of Illinois as the receptionist for the Mahomet branch and corporate office facility. An Urbana native and Urbana High School graduate, Jessica earned an agriculture business and animal science degree from Illinois State University. Jessica previously worked as the program coordinator for the Champaign County Park District's Prairie Farm Site, which is a hands-on agricultural educational outreach program for youth.

Farm Credit Services of Illinois is a farmer owned and directed agriculture lending cooperative. With $2.4 billion of assets and 170 employees in 21 branch offices, Farm Credit provides competitive farm financing and crop insurance expertise to 8,000 farm families, agribusinesses, and rural landowners throughout the southern 60 counties of Illinois. The Mahomet branch office serves Champaign, Douglas, Ford, Piatt, and Vermilion Counties. The national Farm Credit System's mission is to provide a sound, dependable, and competitive source of financial capital and related services to agriculture and Rural America.
